

Living Lab Progress

OSLO

CIA

Coffee information posters

Where: Karvesvingen 3 Living Lab demonstration site (topic: sustainable and healthy food in the workplace) What: posters on the coffee machines to give information about the coffee, tea and milk which is organic, fair trade etc. Why: to raise awareness and to build a sustainable food culture.

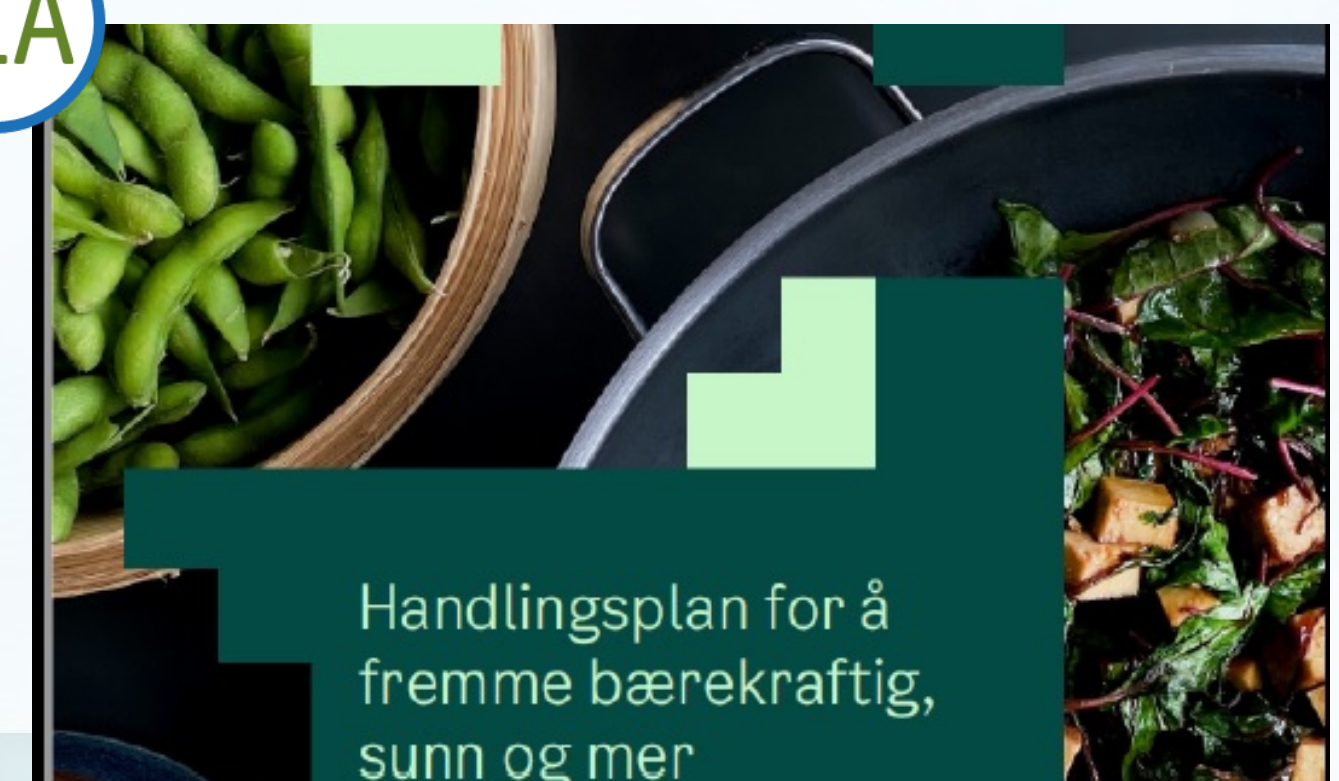

PIA

Edible roof garden

Where: Karvesvingen 3 Living Lab demonstration site (topic: sustainable and healthy food in the workplace). What: edible and pollinator friendly plants and flowers on the roof terrace. Provided by company Ureist AS (Økern portal etc.) Possibly courses for employees in the building. Why: to raise awareness and to build a sustainable food culture.

GIA

New action plan

Where: Governance action... What: the City Government/Department of Finance/Agency for Improvement and Development have drafted an "Action plan for sustainable, healthy and plantbased food in Oslo municipality". The document was on hearing 9 May - 9 June and the FUSILLI team in Agency for Urban Environment contributed with input.

DIA

Trust shop

Where: Karvesvingen 3 Living Lab demonstration site (topic: sustainable and healthy food in the workplace). What: Trust shop vending machine is used to sell surplus food from the staff canteen at a reduced price as well as snacks and drinks for employees needing food and drink outside canteen opening hours. Why: food rescue and providing a 24-7 food service.

WIA

Food waste actions catalogue

Where: Public nursing homes Living Lab demonstration site (topic: sustainable and healthy food in nursing homes). What: Catalogue of best case examples from all over Norway, on how to avoid and reduce food waste in nursing homes. Why: give support to nursing homes in working to reduce food waste.

